

San Diego American Indian Health Center's Youth Program presents

WE R URBAN

"We R Urban" is an American Indian and Alaskan Native art awareness project by youth who represent a myriad of Tribal nations. Our goal is to highlight the experiences of these youth who live in the metropolitan areas of San Diego County. Creations will consist of mixed media, live performances, and art exhibits and explore what it means to be "urban." Light refreshments will be provided.

This is Native pride Urban style!
