Soboba Foundation Scholarship Awarded at the SCTCA High School Graduation Ceremony

The Soboba Foundation fully supports education and the pursuit of higher education of all students within Indian Country. Particular emphasis is placed on Native American students within Southern California. With that, the Soboba Foundation is proud to offer one scholarship to a student participating in the Southern California Tribal Chairman's Association Graduation Ceremony. Two students will be awarded $2,500 to pursue their higher education goals. In order to be eligible for the scholarship, the student must be accepted into an accredited college or accredited vocational institution to pursue higher education and hold an accumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Applicants must provide a copy of their Student I.D. (high school) and proof of acceptance into an accredited college or accredited vocational institution as well as two letters of recommendation.
